

PIRATES WIN OUT IN TENTH INNING

Shipbuilders Have Men at Bat
Fifty Times, Make Seventeen
Hits, but Lose.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Portsmouth, Va., August 11.—Portsmouth, after four consecutive defeats, got back in the fight to stay out of last place in the Virginia League race to-day by defeating Newport News 7 to 6 in a ten-inning game.

The Pirates had the game 5 to 0 for four innings, and had driven Austin to the bench. Barton relieved him, and held the Pirates in check. The Shipbuilders found Brown for one run in the fifth, two more in the seventh and three in the eighth. Hardin was sent in to save the day, and blanked the heavy-hitting bunch from across the roads for two innings. Portsmouth scored the winning run in the tenth by clean hitting and good base-running.

Newport News made seventeen hits off the two Pirate pitchers to-day, but could get only six runners across the plate. They had several chances to score, but poor base-running left them in the lurch. Both teams put up an erratic game in the old. The score:

PRESSLY'S TIGERS BLANK NORFOLK

Gardin and Shenn Pitched in Fine Form—Errors Cost
Tars Pretty Game.

Roanoke, Va., August 11.—Gardin and Shenn were both in fine form to-day, Gardin getting the breaks, while two errors, one by Ryan and the other by Gray, gave the locals all of their runs. Shenn allowed but four hits, while Gardin was touched for seven. With men on bases Gardin was at his best, hitting on balls to Mattie, Summers' sacrifice, and a single by Gouby, scored the Tigers' first run. Kircher had Mattie thrown out at the plate, but the ball took a short and away from Ryan, Gouby taking third, scoring on Gouby's sacrifice. In the seventh a base on balls to Summers, a steal and a gift to Ginn, followed by Summers' steal of third, while Ryan threw to catch him or second. Gray throwing the ball away attempting to get Summers at third, scored Roanoke's third run. The game was well played, and an interesting contest to witness.

McCracken, of Roanoke, has been released, and neither Nutter signed in his place.

OFFERS $40,000 FOR WHISKBROOM

Jeff Livingston Makes Big Bid for Winner of Metropolitan Handicap.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Saratoga, N. Y., August 11.—Whiskbroom, the peerless son of the great sire of the same name, winner of the Metropolitan Handicap in record time this year, will soon change owners, if Harry Payne Whitney will consider $40,000 for the horse. This is the price, which, it was rumored to-day, "Jeff" Livingston has offered Mr. Whitney for Whiskbroom, and it is said the latter has instructed his trainer to sell any of his horses if he could find buyers. Livingston, who already owns the champion sprinter, Prince Eugene, to-day bought Iron Mask, paying $20,000. The surprise of to-day's events came in the first race, when August Belmont's Platter Gold decisively beat Boots and Saddles, the Western entry. The Western contingent had backed their favorite heavily to win.

AMUSEMENTS.

Colonial—Vaudeville.
Orpheum—Vaudeville.
Little Theatre—Pictures.

At the Colonial.
In accordance with custom, the Colonial's critical clientele congregated within its cool confines to clap cordially the comedians, contortionists and—that line of cacophonous alliteration has gone as far as it can be taken with any spontaneity; we'll make a fresh start.

Yesterday afternoon the Colonial was well filled by that cool little theatre's first-nighters, who always go there Monday afternoon. These theatrical fans always form the most critical audience of the week, and when an act "goes big" before it, then the act is good.

Several of the numbers on this week's bill were warmly received by these nonprofessional but competent critics, and doubtless later in the week other audiences will warm up to the whole bill.

Besides the pictures, which are unusually good, the program presents Frank Palmer, comedy contortionist; Rother and Anthony, a man and a woman, in songs and piano; the Eight Berlin Madcaps, who offer ensemble acrobatic dancing, Lawrence & Peters, two men, in songs and patter, and the Three Shelve Boys, acrobats and contortionists.
